Discharge of the members of the Board of Directors and the Group Executive Board rejected

Shareholders rejected the discharge of the members of the Board of Directors and the Group Executive Board for the financial year 2018 (41.67% voted for, 41.64% voted against and 16.69% abstained).

Commenting on the result, Axel Weber, Chairman of the Board of Directors, said to shareholders: "I interpret your decision as a reflection of your concern about uncertainty surrounding the ongoing court case in France and that you want to keep all possible legal options open. I can understand that. So allow me again to make the personal remark from the point of view of the bank's present-day leadership that it had no responsibility in relation to this case at the time. We can therefore only judge the past on the basis of the available documentary evidence. In our view, the trial in France did not show in any way that UBS failed to comply with the regulations that applied at the time in France and Switzerland. As I already stated in my speech, it was not possible to reach an acceptable out-of-court settlement in the France case. That's why we decided to defend the bank in court. We believe this was in the best interests of shareholders. Allow me also to add in this context that, in terms of building reserves, the strictest legal and regulatory requirements have been met by the Board of Directors and the Group Executive Board. We will not waver from the chosen path. And, at the same time, we will continue our dialogue with you as our shareholders."
