When you visit a UBS website, that website will contain additional information about how we use your information while you are visiting that website; and
- in some cases, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, Personal Information revealing your political opinions or affiliations, health information, religious or philosophical beliefs, and, to the extent legally possible, information relating to criminal convictions or offences.

We may use cookies, tracking technologies and other means (e.g., web beacons, pixels, gifs, tags, unique identifiers) to collect and process the above information from different channels, including email, and devices that you use to interact with us.

For our usage of cookies and other tracking technologies in relation to UBS websites please also refer to the UBS Website Usage and Cookie Notice available here.

We may use Personal Information for analytics and measurement (incl. machine learning) to process the above information, including profiling based on the processing of your Personal Information, for instance by looking at information we obtain via cookies and tracking technologies.

In some cases, we collect this information from public registers (which, depending on the product or service you receive and the country of the UBS entity with which you have a contractual relationship, may include beneficial ownership and other registers), public administration or other third-party sources, such as wealth screening services, credit reference agencies, fraud prevention agencies, and other UBS Group entities.

If relevant to the products and services we provide to you, we will also collect information about your additional card holders or account holders, business partners (including other shareholders or beneficial owners), dependants or family members, representatives, and agents.

Additionally, where you are an institutional or corporate client or investor, we will also collect information about your directors, employees or shareholders. Before providing UBS with this information, you should provide a copy of this Notice to those individuals.

3 For which purposes do we process Personal Information?

We always process your Personal Information for a specific purpose and only process the Personal Information which is relevant to achieve that purpose. In particular, we process Personal Information, with applicable legal limitations, for the following purposes:

- a) Client Onboarding:

- to verify your identity and assess your application (including the need for guarantees or other securitisation tools if you apply for credit). For legal and regulatory compliance checks (for example, to comply with anti-money laundering regulations, and prevent fraud), please see Section e) below.
- b) Client Relationship Management:
- to manage our relationship with you, including communicating with you in relation to the products and services you obtain from us and from our business partners, handling customer service-related queries and complaints, facilitating debt recovery activities, making decisions regarding credit or your identity, tracing your whereabouts, and closing your account (in accordance with applicable law) if it remains dormant and we are unable to contact you after a period of time;
 - to help us to learn more about you as a client, your preferences on the products and services you receive, and other products and services - including those offered by us, UBS Group entities, and our business partners - you may be interested in receiving, including profiling based on the processing of your Personal Information, for instance by looking at the types of applications, platforms, products and services that you use from us, information we obtain via tracking technology and how you like to be contacted;
 - to collect and analyse your individualized and personal or anonymous and group-based activity and potential interests in the use of our products and services, of UBS websites, our applications for mobile devices and UBS platforms, multimedia portals and social networks.
- c) Product implementation and execution:
- to provide products and services to you and ensuring their proper execution, for instance by ensuring that we can identify you and make payments to and from your accounts in accordance with your instructions and the product terms;
 - to perform underwriting.
- d) Engaging in prospecting and business development and / or protecting and enhancing the UBS brand:
- to evaluate whether and how UBS may offer products, services and events - including those offered by us, UBS Group entities, and our other business partners - that may be of interest to you;
 - to provide individualised and personal or anonymous and group-based matching of offers on UBS websites, on our applications for mobile devices, on UBS platforms, on multimedia portals and social networks and other UBS products and services you may use;
 - to contact you for direct marketing purposes about products and services we think will be of interest to you, including those offered by us, UBS Group entities, and our other business partners, and facilitating competitions and promotions.
- e) Compliance and Risk Management and / or Crime Prevention, Detection and Investigation:
- to carry out legal and regulatory compliance checks as part of the onboarding process, including to comply with anti-money laundering regulations and fraud prevention;
 - to meet our on-going regulatory and compliance obligations (e.g., laws of the financial sector, anti-money laundering and tax laws), including in relation to recording and monitoring communications, apply a risk classification to ongoing business relationships, disclosures to tax authorities, financial service regulators and other regulatory, judicial and governmental bodies or in proceedings and investigating or preventing crime;
 - to receive and handle complaints, requests or reports from you or third parties made to designated units within UBS or the UBS Group;
 - to reply to any actual or potential proceedings, requests or the inquiries of a public or judicial authority;

- to prevent and detect crime, including fraud or criminal activity, misuses of our products or services as well as the security of our IT systems, architecture and networks.
- f) Supporting, Enhancing and Maintaining UBS's technology:
- to take steps to improve our products and services and our use of technology, including testing and upgrading of systems and processes, and conducting market research to understand how to improve of our existing products and services or learn about other products and services we can provide;
 - to analyse the results of our marketing activities to measure their effectiveness and relevance of our campaigns.
- g) Other purposes:
- for the UBS Group's prudent operational management (including credit and risk management, technological support services, reporting, insurance, audit, systems and products training and administrative purposes);
 - to enable a transfer, merger or disposal to a potential buyer, transferee, merger partner or seller and their advisers in connection with an actual or potential transfer, merger or disposal of part or all of UBS's business or assets, or any associated rights or interests, or to acquire a business or enter into a merger with it;
 - to collect data to ensure the security of buildings, the safety of staff and visitors, as well as property and information located, stored on or accessible from the premises, to prevent, and if necessary, investigate unauthorized access to secure premises (e.g., maintaining building access logs and CCTV system images to prevent, detect and investigate a theft of equipment or asset owned by UBS, visitor or staff, or threats to the safety of personnel working at the office);
 - to undertake transactional and statistical analysis, and related research; or
 - to exercise our duties and/or rights vis-à-vis you or third parties.

We use both automated (including artificial intelligence) and manual methods to process your Personal Data for these purposes. Our automated methods often are related to and supported by our manual methods. For example, our artificial intelligence systems may analyse your data to identify patterns and trends, which are usually manually reviewed and interpreted by humans.

4 How do we protect Personal Information?

All UBS staff accessing Personal Information must comply with the internal rules and processes in relation to the processing of Personal Information to protect them and to ensure their confidentiality.

We have implemented adequate technical and organisational measures to protect your Personal Information against unauthorised, accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, misuse, disclosure or access and against all other unlawful forms of processing.

5 Who has access to Personal Information and with whom are they shared?

5.1 Within the UBS Group

We usually share Personal Information with other UBS Group companies to ensure a consistently high service standard across our group, and to provide services and products to you. Other companies of the UBS Group may process your Personal Information on behalf and upon request of UBS.

5.2 Outside UBS and the UBS Group

5.2.1 Third parties

We share Personal Information with other credit and financial services institutions, comparable institutions and to our professional advisers and consultants to perform the business relationship with you. In particular, when providing products and services to you, we will share Personal Information with persons acting on your behalf or otherwise involved (depending on the type of product or service you receive from us), including, where relevant the following types of companies:

- a party acquiring interest in, or assuming risk in or in connection with, the transaction (such as an insurer);
- issuers of securities (including third parties appointed by them) in which you have an interest, where such securities are held by third party banks for you;
- payment recipients, beneficiaries, account nominees, intermediaries, correspondent and agent banks (including custodian banks);
- clearing houses, and clearing or settlement systems and specialised payment companies or institutions such as SWIFT;
- market counterparties, upstream withholding agents, swap or trade repositories, stock exchanges;
- other financial institutions, credit reference agencies or credit bureaus (for the purposes of obtaining or providing credit references);
- any third-party fund manager who provides asset management services to you; and
- any introducing broker to whom we provide introductions or referrals;
- lawyers, auditors, accountants, and insurers providing legal, audit, consultancy, accounting or insurance services to us.

5.2.2 Service Providers

In some instances, we also share Personal Information with our suppliers, who are contractually bound to confidentiality, such as IT hardware, software and outsourcing providers, logistics, mail, courier, printing services and storage providers, marketing and communication providers, facility management companies, market data service providers, transportation and travel management providers and others. When we do so we take steps to ensure they meet our data security standards, so that your Personal Information remains secure.

Service providers are thereby mandated to comply with a list of technical and organisational security measures, irrespective of their location, including measures relating to: (i) information security management; (ii) information security risk assessment and (iii) information security measures (e.g., physical controls; logical access controls; malware and hacking protection; data encryption measures; backup and recovery management measures).

5.2.3 Public or regulatory authorities

If required from time to time, we disclose Personal Information to public authorities, regulators or governmental bodies, courts or party to proceedings, where we are required to disclose information by applicable law or regulation, under a code of practice or conduct, at their request, or to safeguard our legitimate interests.

5.2.4 Others

- A potential buyer, transferee, merger partner or seller and their advisers in connection with an actual or potential transfer or merger of part or all of UBS's business or assets, or any associated rights or interests, or to acquire a business or enter into a merger with it;
- Any legitimate recipient required by applicable laws or regulations.

5.3 Data Transfers to other countries

The Personal Information transferred within or outside the UBS Group as set out in sections 5.1 and 5.2, is in some cases also processed in other countries. We only transfer your Personal Information abroad to countries which are considered to provide an adequate level of data protection, or in the absence of such legislation that guarantees adequate protection, based on appropriate safeguards (e.g., standard contractual clauses adopted by the European Commission to the extent recognized by the competent Data Protection Authority or another statutory exemption) provided by local applicable law.

A copy of these measures can be obtained by contacting the Group Data Protection Office. If and to the extent required by applicable law, we implement the necessary legal, operational and technical measure and/or enter into an agreement with you before such transfers. A list of the countries in which UBS operates can be found at: <https://www.ubs.com/locations.html>.

6 How long do we store your data?

We will only retain Personal Data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with legal, regulatory, or internal policy requirements. To help us do this, we apply criteria to determine the appropriate periods for retaining your Personal Data depending on its purpose.

We will keep your personal data for as long as you are our customer to allow us to provide you with the services and to meet our regulatory requirements, as specified in this document.

Once our relationship with you has ended (for example, after your account has closed or following a transaction such as a payment, your application for a product is refused, or you decide not to go ahead with an application), we will only keep your personal data for a period that is appropriate, which in many cases is up to 10 years after your account closes or following a transaction such as a payment. The period we keep information for is often linked to the amount of time available to bring a legal claim, required by law or regulations, or for compliance and risk management.

We will keep your personal data after this time if we have to do so by law, if there are existing claims or complaints that will reasonably require us to keep your information, or for regulatory reasons. If we do need to keep your information for a longer period, we will continue to protect that information. However, if you wish to have your Personal Data removed from our databases, you can make a request as described below, which we will review as set out therein.

7 What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

7.1 Your rights

You have a right to access and to obtain information regarding your Personal Information that we process. If you believe that any information we hold about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may also request the correction of your Personal Information.

You may also have the right to:

- request the erasure of your Personal Information; and
- request for information on the identities or types of third parties with whom your Personal Information is shared.

In certain circumstances UBS may process your Personal Information through automated decision-making. Where this takes place, you will be informed of such automated decision-making that uses your Personal Information and be given information on criteria and procedures applied. You can request an explanation about automated decision making carried out and that a natural person reviews the related decision where such a decision is exclusively based on such processing.

We will honour such requests, but these rights are not absolute: they do not always apply and exemptions/exceptions may be engaged. We will usually, in response to a request, ask you to verify your identity and/or provide information that helps us to understand your request better. If we do not comply with your request, we will explain why.

7.2 Exercising your rights

To exercise the above rights, please send an e-mail to sh-ibdiso@ubs.com.

If you are not satisfied with how UBS processes your Personal Information, please let us know and we will investigate your concern. Please raise any concerns by contacting the Group Data Protection Office at dpo-apac@ubs.com.

If you are not satisfied with UBS's response, you have the right to make a complaint to the Data Protection Authority. The contact details of the Data Protection Authority can be found at the following website: <https://www.privacy.org.nz/>.

8 Changes to your Personal Information

We are committed to keeping your Personal Information accurate and up to date. Therefore, if your Personal Information changes, please inform us of the change as soon as possible.

9 Updates to this Notice
