

UBS Cloud Services Terms

1. General

- 1.1 These terms apply to the provision of any Cloud Services.
- 1.2 UBS and Supplier hereby agree that no: (i) shrink-wrap or click-wrap agreement; (ii) electronic terms and conditions or confirmations; (iii) terms and conditions included within a Specification appended to a Supply Order; nor (iv) any acknowledgements or sales or shipping form of Supplier, will supplement, modify, govern or take precedence over the Agreement.

2. Provision of Cloud Services

- 2.1 Supplier shall supply to UBS the Cloud Services (including any Updates and Upgrades) and a complete set of relevant Documentation in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.
- 2.2 In providing the Cloud Services, Supplier shall act on all Defects immediately upon the earlier of notification or otherwise becoming aware and shall remedy them promptly, and in any case within any timelines specified in the relevant Supply Order.
- 2.3 Before implementing any Updates or Upgrades that may impact UBS's use of the Cloud Services (other than security patches and fixes), Supplier shall provide UBS with reasonable notice, as well as any assistance and Documentation reasonably necessary to facilitate UBS's continued use of the Cloud Services without disruption. The Supply Order may set out further requirements in relation to Updates or Upgrades.

3. Delivery, Acceptance and Remedies

- 3.1 The Cloud Services and any associated Documentation shall be delivered promptly to UBS, in accordance with any timescales and other requirements set out in the Supply Order.

Acceptance

- 3.2 The Supply Order shall indicate whether the Cloud Services are subject to Acceptance and, if so, the duration of the Acceptance period.
- 3.3 Where the Cloud Services are subject to Acceptance, UBS shall, on or before expiry of the Acceptance period, notify Supplier in writing as to whether it accepts or rejects the Cloud Services. If UBS does not do so before the expiry of the Acceptance period, it shall be deemed to have Accepted the Cloud Services.
- 3.4 Where the Cloud Services are subject to Acceptance, invoices may be issued prior to Acceptance with UBS's prior consent. However, unless otherwise specified in the Supply Order, UBS shall only become obliged to pay any invoice following Acceptance.
- 3.5 If the Cloud Services are subject to Acceptance and UBS identifies a Defects or a non-conformity with the Specification, then UBS may, before the expiry of the Acceptance period, elect one or more of the following remedies:
 - (a) UBS may require Supplier, at Supplier's own expense, promptly to remedy the Defects or non-conformity free of charge, by providing a replacement service/product or by eliminating the Defects or non-conformity, within a reasonable period specified by UBS (and in line with the Service Levels);
 - (b) UBS may withhold payment to Supplier or recover as a sum of money due from Supplier the Charges or any portion thereof that are reasonably allocable to the Defects or non-conformity; or

- (c) if Supplier fails to remedy the Defects or non-conformity within seven (7) days of notification by UBS or such other period of time agreed by the Parties (including in the Service Levels), UBS may remedy the Defects or non-conformity itself, have it remedied by a third party on its behalf, or implement a workaround solution to mitigate its losses, and in any such case the Supplier shall be liable for UBS's associated costs.

- 3.6 UBS's remedies under clause 3.5 are in addition to any applicable Service Credits, and without prejudice to any other available remedies.

4. Service Levels

- 4.1 In respect of any Cloud Services, Supplier shall measure and report to UBS, as specified in the Supply Order:
 - (a) on its compliance with the Service Levels from the applicable Service Level Effective Date, using the Measurement Definition; and
 - (b) on the occurrence of any Service Level Defaults in, and any associated Service Credits due to UBS in respect of, the preceding month and on a cumulative basis.
- 4.2 Upon UBS's reasonable request, Supplier shall provide, or provide access to, performance information to allow UBS to verify the accuracy of reported Service Level measurements.

Service Level Defaults

- 4.3 Supplier shall notify UBS without delay on becoming aware of any Service Level Defaults, or alternatively allow UBS to monitor Service Level compliance itself. Supplier shall promptly investigate the causes of the Service Level Default.
- 4.4 In the event of a Service Level Default, Supplier shall on UBS's request provide a written plan for minimizing the risk of Multiple Service Level Defaults. The plan shall include the reasons for the Service Level Default, a root cause analysis and outcomes, and the remedial efforts to be undertaken.
- 4.5 Service Credits, as further described in clause 5 below, shall apply and accrue in the event of any Service Level Default of Cloud Services. Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Supply Order, the total amount of Service Credits shall not exceed the At Risk Amount, which shall be fifteen per cent (15%) of the relevant Charges.

5. Service Credits

- 5.1 The Supply Order defines the circumstances in which UBS is entitled to receive, and the associated method of calculation for, Service Credits. UBS shall be entitled to select and receive Service Credits as a refund of Charges paid, as a direct payment, or to be set off against the next invoice(s).
- 5.2 Except to the extent prohibited under Applicable Laws, the accrual and payment of Service Credits shall not relieve Supplier of its other obligations under the Agreement. Service Credits are UBS's sole financial remedy within the Service Level regime. However, if a failure to meet the Services Levels also constitutes a breach of the Agreement, UBS shall have available to it all other rights and remedies.
- 5.3 A Multiple Service Level Default shall constitute an irremediable material breach pursuant to clause 10.3(e) of the General Terms and Conditions.

6. Warranties
