

Avina Sugiarto
Venture Partner, East
Ventures

Avina Sugiarto is a Venture Partner of East Ventures, a pioneering and sector-agnostic venture capital firm in Indonesia. Founded in 2009, East Ventures has transformed into a holistic platform that provides multi-stage investments, including Seed and Growth for over 200 companies in Southeast Asia. Avina has over 12 years of experience in investing across alternative assets including venture capital, private equity, private credit, and special situations across industries from technology, property, logistics, natural resources, to consumers and financial services. Prior to joining East Ventures, she was SVP at Indies Capital and a key member of the investment partnership with Värde Partners, a $15 billion global alternative asset manager. Avina leverages her extensive experiences to invest in growth-stage technology companies and further drive sustainability and integration of ESG practices in East Ventures' investments.
